

Σύντομο βιογραφικό της Michele Knox, Ph.D.

Michele Knox, Ph.D. is a Professor of Psychiatry and licensed clinical psychologist at the University of Toledo College of Medicine and Life Sciences. Her faculty role includes conducting psychological assessment and individual and family therapy for children and adolescents and their families, teaching medical students and residents, and conducting research. Her current research addresses factors related to harsh and abusive parenting, and the efficacy of training in child maltreatment prevention for medical students, residents and health care providers. She is a Master Trainer for the ACT Raising Safe Kids program, the American Psychological Association's child maltreatment prevention program. She is the author of the book, Clinician's Toolkit for Children's Behavioral Health as well as over 60 journal articles and book chapters on family violence, parenting and related topics. She is also a 2- time Fulbright Scholar to The Netherlands and Portugal.