

International Research Award for Graduate Students in Psychology

Call to students engaged in international psychology research!

Division 52, International Psychology, is offering an International Research Award for graduate students in psychology. This award has been established to encourage and recognize promising graduate student research in international psychology.

On or before Sunday midnight (PST), May 7, 2017, interested students should submit:

- Four page double-spaced summary of research that describes the purpose, method, analysis, results, and discussion of your international research (excluding references and one table or figure). Please also exclude all identifying information on research summary document.
- Curriculum Vitae.
- One-paragraph email endorsement from faculty research advisor/sponsor, sent directly from the advisor, providing:
 - Endorsement for the award;
 - Confirmation that research was an independent project, thesis, or dissertation effort conducted during graduate program; and
 - Assurance of student's good standing in the graduate program.
- Two-paragraph cover email from the student:
 - First paragraph should provide: contact information (email & phone), name of graduate program and research advisor, year in the program, expected graduation date, as well as member status with Div. 52; student must be a member of Div. 52 as of application deadline.
 - Second paragraph should assure the committee that student's independent research project, thesis or dissertation is nearing completion and that student is not applying simultaneously for another similar APA research award. At least preliminary analysis and results must have been completed by May 2017. Students within 1 year of graduation can apply as long as the research project was completed as part of their graduate program.

Please note that submissions exceeding the paragraph or page limits will be disqualified.

Email all application materials BEFORE MIDNIGHT, Pacific Standard Time, on MAY 7, 2017 to:

Daria Diakonova-Curtis, PhD

Chair, APA Division 52 Student International Research Award

daria.diakonova@gmail.com

The two-tiered blind rating process is designed to will evaluate the award applications under double-blind review based on: (a) the degree of relevance to international psychology, (b) progress to completion, (c) adherence to APA Style, (d) originality of research, (e) clarity of design and method, (f) complexity of analysis, (g) quality of findings, (g) recognition of limitations, (g) insight in the discussion, and (h) brevity and clarity.

Awardees will be notified no later than mid-June, 2017. There will be an awards ceremony at the APA Convention. Awardees will also featured in an issue of the International Psychology Bulletin.